RE: Information on Unfreezing of Assets – Emergency Economic Measures Order (EMMO)

As a result of the application of the EMMO, the RCMP and its policing partners provided information to financial institutions on persons and vehicles directly or indirectly involved in the prohibited activities in Ottawa. The financial institutions have since moved to freeze assets of the individuals that played a role in the Ottawa protest either by influencing others to participate or by being present. Recent reports indicate that individuals have since attended RCMP offices requesting the unfreezing of their assets.

This afternoon, the RCMP provided information to financial institutions allowing them to unfreeze assets. Any person attending your office inquiring about this process should be directed to contact their financial institution as the authority rests with them.
